

The Mack-Parker London Tour

Many London museums are free, but much of we did required a fee, unless noted otherwise.

Sunday

- National Gallery and National Portrait Gallery (free)
- Somerset House (free)
- National Portrait Gallery Restaurant (reservations recommended)
(Free, 10-6pm, Trafalgar Square, London, WC2N 5DN)

Monday

- Get bearings
- Clarence Restaurant
(Dover Street, London, Greater London, W1S 4LB)

Tuesday

- Westminster Abbey with audio tour (1.5 hours)
- Breakfast in Westminster Abbey restaurant (no reservation needed)
- Clipper boat (use Oyster card for fare)
- National Maritime Museums: Royal Observatory (home of Greenwich Mean Time and Prime Meridian of Longitude); tour of Cutty Sark ship; Queen's House (art gallery, free)

Wednesday

- Train from Paddington Station to Windsor Castle
- Windsor Castle
- Two Brewers Pub

Thursday

- Breakfast - Fischer's
(50 Marylebone High Street, London, W1U 5HN)
They take reservations, but not required.)
- Sherlock Holmes Museum
(221b Baker Street, Mayfair, £15, 9:30-6pm buy with cash or credit upon arrival. No pre-booking.)
- Handel House Museum
(25 Brook Street, Mayfair, £10, 11am-8pm. Pre-booked.)
- Dinner - Duck and Waffle
(Heron Tower, 110 Bishopsgate, 38th Floor, London EC2N 4AY Reservation recommended)

Friday

- Train from St. Pancras to Sheffield Station via Virgin Trains
- Sheffield bus station to Chatsworth House, bus 218
- Chatsworth House
- Flying Childers Restaurant for Afternoon tea (on site of Chatsworth estate)

Saturday

- Fortnum and Mason, visit the tea counter!
- Paxton & Whitfield London cheese mongers, established 1797

Can't be missed: Regent Street, National Gallery, Westminster Abbey, Clipper boat, Windsor Castle, Two Brewers Pub, Handel House, Duck and Waffle, Fortnum and Mason. Walk as much as you can. St. James Park was beautiful and so was seeing the countryside to Chatsworth House. Staying in Mayfair was idyllic!